CARE OF THE INSANE.

Dr. G. A. Tucker of New South Wales, Australia, has been in the United States nearly a year inspecting our asylums for the treatment of the insane, and has visited them all except one in Oregon. He appears to be not only a competent judge, but a very impartial one, and both his commendation and his censure of the treatment of the insane in the United States make interesting and profitable reading. He finds that the Superintendents and managing officers of the asylums in the United States are uniformly men of ability and high character, but believes the attendants or nurses, should be better paid, and selected from a more intelligent and refined class of persons. It will not be surprising to know that he discovered the influence of politics in the making of appointments, and found that it was detrimental. He says: "I found one asylum where the Superintendent and every one of his staff down to the last attendant were new appointees within a few days, and none of them had ever had any experience in any similar institution." Dr. Tucker is putting it very mildly when he says of this case that it is "manifestly improper." It is shocking. Every person having a relative or a friend in such an institution as that would owe it as a moral duty to protest against it as a great outrage on a class of beings entitled to the most tender and skilful care. It is creditable to California that during all the party mutations of recent years the insane asylums have been exempted from the invasion of politics, much to their benefit.

Aside from the political interference, Dr. Tucker's two principal indictments against the asylums of the United States are overcrowding and the lack of a system of visitation. "It is all-important that there should be a system of official visitation, for it is the only safeguard against mistakes, and even against abuses." The soundness of this principle ought to be above doubt, without reference to individual instances demonstrating the need to exist. But Dr. Tucker undertakes to say that in his tour of inspection he has collected plenty of positive evidence showing the ill effects of the lack of visitation. He says: "I was talking to a member of the American Association of Superintendents, who was opposed to the system of visitations. He urged that the association was a means whereby evils could be corrected; that the members consulted one another as to their difficulties and helped one another in matters of treatment, and I told him that, although he had been President of the association, there were things done in some of the asylums that he knew nothing about and that they would not dare to consult him about. 'For example,' said I, 'you do not know that handkerchiefs and leg-irons are used in an asylum within your association.' 'No,' said he, 'I do not and I do not believe it.' 'Nevertheless it is true,' said I, and I gave him the names and places. 'And,' I said, 'you would hardly believe that in one of your asylums the patients sleep two in a bed, and that very practice is defended as being a beneficial part of the treatment; yet I have found that to be the case.' I have found in one asylum a ward where there were 29 patients kept continually, with only 10 seats, and nothing around them but bare, whitewashed walls."

Dr. Tucker refers to the popular notion that Americans are peculiarly liable to insanity, and that there is an enormous increase of the disease in this country. He discredits the belief, as a mere popular fallacy, and observes that everywhere, during his tour of inspection, he found that foreigners comprised 60 to 70 per cent. of the inmates of asylums. In this connection mention is made of the statement of Dr. Wilkins, that of the patients committed to the Napa Asylum there are four new-comers to one old resident. This disproportion Dr. Wilkins attributed, more than anything else, to excessive use of animal food, to which new-comers have not been accustomed.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

To-day is the 96th anniversary of the assembling of the convention at Philadelphia which framed the Constitution of the United States and gave us our present form of government. Its first meeting was held on the 25th of May, 1787, and it adjourned on September 17th of the same year. The names of the delegates show that it was one of the best and most august bodies which has ever come together to deliberate over the necessities of our people.

First Assistant Postmaster-General Hutton, Acting Postmaster-General, issued an order yesterday closing all the postoffices on Decoration Day between the hours of 10 A. M. and 5 P. M., except in the larger cities. In these cities the postmasters are to use their own discretion as to the hours of closing their offices.

The Pope's Great Love for the Irish People.

DUBLIN, May 24. Archbishop Croke, replying to an address at Wicklow depot, said it was the Pope's great love for the Irish people that caused him to be so solicitous for their welfare. He was confident that when the Pope understood the situation better the efforts of the priesthood and himself for the Irish would be crowned with success. Time would prove the correctness of his representations to the Pope. Meanwhile he urged the people to submit to the Vatican.

LONDON, May 25. The Daily News correspondent at Rome says the Pope is satisfied with the result of his circular to the Irish Bishops, and he expected it would be received with more opposition than has been shown.

General Grant Talks About Crook and the Mexican Presidency—He has Faith that Our Indian Fighters are Safe.

CHICAGO, May 25. In an interview with General Grant the question was asked, "Do you regard Crook's failure to make his whereabouts known as indicating he is in danger?"

"No, I do not. General Crook is an able officer. As an Indian fighter I have every confidence in him. He has not entered into this engagement with Apaches without considering the obstacles that are sure to spring up before him. His progress must necessarily be slow in the mountainous regions of Mexico. The Indians are accustomed to the country and may temporarily intrench themselves; but that is to be expected. That Crook will dialogue and capture them there is no reason to doubt."

"You have no idea that he has been drawn into a situation where the Apaches could massacre him?"

"I do not believe he has met with any such fate. My knowledge of Crook's character, his supports—bearing in mind that he has Indian recruits of great experience and some cavalry—forbids me to entertain the thought that he has met with disaster. At any rate it will take official information to convince me that he is not gaining advantage of the hostile Apaches, and that he will drive them to the wall."

"Americans are becoming interested in Mexican affairs?"

"Yes; American capital has flowed into Mexico to a pretty considerable amount, and our people are taking up their residences there and going into business."

"You have talked with General Diaz lately?"

"I saw a great deal of him when he was in New York."

"Will he be the next President of Mexico?"

"There is no doubt of that. In fact, there will be no opposition to him. This is the way I understand it from both General Diaz and his friends."

DISSATISFIED LABORERS.
The Great Strike of Ironworkers—One Hundred Thousand Men to be Thrown Out of Employment.

CHICAGO, May 25. All doubt of a general strike among ironworkers June 1st has been removed by the flat which has gone forth from the headquarters of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers demanding that the present scale of prices be maintained. Members of the association in this city and vicinity have received orders to stop work May 31st at midnight if the companies do not decide, and notices to that effect were generally served upon manufacturers yesterday. Every case of compliance with its demands was refused, and preparations are being made for a general shut-down. The workmen, as a rule, do not look forward to an indefinite period of idleness with any degree of satisfaction, but they are under control of the association and there is no alternative. Manufacturers are equally reluctant to lie idle; but while they express sympathy for the men, they are acceding to the demand would result in actual loss. The strike will effect only what are termed western establishments which include all mills west of the Alleghany mountains, those east of the mountains having no amalgamated association to deal with. The Alleghany range is numerically the dividing line, about the same number of mills being on either side. In the western division there are about 350 blast furnaces with an annual capacity in pig-iron of about 4,000,000 net tons. With the exception of steel rail mills and a very small percentage of iron works which employ non-union men exclusively, these establishments will all be closed, and at least 100,000 operatives will be thrown out of employment. Of this number Pennsylvania will have about one-half, Ohio about the second largest number, and Illinois third, with Indiana a little less than Illinois.

How the Crime of Rape is Punished in Arkansas.

LITTLE ROCK, May 24. Joe Young, to be hanged in Richmond, Little River county, for rape, was not sent from Texarkana jail to-day as intended. Allen and a posse arrived last night from Richmond, and to-morrow will be reinforced by Sheriff Dixon and large posse, including City Marshal Love and Reagan of Texarkana, and the whole party leave with the prisoner at daylight. The officers told Young that if he had any confession to make he had better make it here, for if there was any disturbance or excitement among the negroes at Richmond, when they reached there he would be taken from the wagon and hung without ceremony. He then sent for a reporter and made a full confession.

A Gold and Silver Excitement in Northern Minnesota.

CHICAGO, May 24. Duluth is all excitement over the alleged discoveries of gold and silver within her limits. Last Fall parties claimed to have discovered indications of a silver vein in the central part of the city. Owners of lots began excavations, and this week specimens of ore taken out indicate the presence of considerable silver, but it is too early yet to tell much about the ore. Operations have commenced in another part of the city, where it is reported gold ore has been found. Still another discovery is reported in the gulches back of the city, where it is alleged, a vein of quartz containing silver in paying quantities has been found.

A Railroad Company with a Streak of Generosity.

NEW YORK, May 24. They will also pay to every man the loss he sustained by the destruction of his tools.

SURVEYOR-GENERALSHIP.

General Davis Turns Over the Office to His Successor—Silver Plate Presentation.

General Davis retired from the United States Surveyor Generalship to-day and turned the office over to his successor, C. C. Powning. General Davis has occupied the position for 14 years and has been one of the best officers in that branch of the Government service. It is with regret that a very large portion of the people in this State see him retire from the position he has so faithfully and honestly filled. No gentleman in this State has more warm personal and political friends than has General Davis, and when Nevada loses him she parts with one of the best men that ever pitched a tent within her borders.

He has settled in Solano county, Cal., and opened a hotel, where, no doubt, many an old Comstocker will go to spend a summer vacation in the future.

The deputies, clerks and attaches under him, wishing to show that they appreciated their chief, presented him with a beautiful silver tea service consisting of seven pieces. The silver was handsomely engraved in the center, as follows: "Hon. E. S. Davis, U. S. Surveyor-General for Nevada. From the Deputies, Clerks and Attaches of the Office." Chief Clerk Butler made the presentation speech, as follows:

Gen. Davis:—Now, that our pleasant business relations are severed, and you are to vacate the office you have so many years occupied, we, your subordinates, feel called upon to express to you our sincere and heartfelt thanks for the courteous treatment and many kind favors we have received at your hands. A close business connection of 14 years must necessarily make a deep and lasting impression of some kind upon the hearts of men so situated. As it is the case with yourself and some of us in this office I have been selected by my fellows to perform this pleasant yet painful duty. You will ever be remembered by us in the most kindly manner, and we can but hope that the friendship now existing between us will remain fresh and green in our memory until our labors here have been completed and death has closed our eyes forever. As a slight token of our appreciation of you, not only as our superior in office, but as a gentleman and friend, allow me in behalf of your subordinates to present you with this silver service that you may keep as a memento of your former days.

He was feelingly responded to by the ex-General. A basket of champagne assisted materially to make those present forget their troubles and look only on the bright side of life. An hour or more was spent in social intercourse and General Powning's new quarters scented with the fragrant Havana and he was duly installed into office.

General Powning will, doubtless, perform the duties of the office with intelligence and honesty, and if he follows in the footsteps of his predecessor he is sure to please those having business with the office.

A VICIOUS BRUTE.

An Elko County Stallion the Rival of Mark's Bull.

Jam's Dewar was seriously injured by a horse on the Hunter ranch, at the mouth of South Fork, a day or two ago, says the Elko Independent. Mr. Dewar has charge of the ranch, and while passing on horseback through a field near the house, in search of some milch cows, was attacked by a vicious stallion running with a band of horses near the enclosure. Noticing Dewar as he passed, the brute left the herd, and with open mouth came furiously toward him, when Dewar put his horse to the top of his speed, with the expectation of escaping the danger, but the infuriated animal continued the pursuit, and, overtaking Dewar, attacked him in the most savage manner, and in spite of every effort on the part of the assailed, who used a stout club freely, seized Dewar by the thigh, and, dragging him from the saddle with his teeth, held him suspended in the air, finally dropping him and galloping away, after shaking him about as a bull terrier would a wool hat. Mr. Dewar fortunately sustained but little injury beyond that inflicted by the jaws of the beast, but which is sufficiently severe to be classed as serious. In view of the persistent savagery of the brute, Dewar deems himself in extraordinary luck to escape with his life.

THE BOSTONIANS.

Eight Car Loads of Eastern Night-Weeds Spent a Few Hours in Reno.

Eight cars of excursionists from Massachusetts and other Eastern States arrived here from California at 7 o'clock last evening. They suppered here and afterward many of them took walks about town, quite a number of them visiting Chinatown in search of something new. They visited Reno dry goods stores and expressed surprise at the stock our merchants carried. Several gentlemen composing the party visited the White House and Nathan's clothing store and were free to confess that they compared favorably with similar places east. They came out by the southern route last fall. With the party last evening were the following who spent the winter at Monterey and vicinity: Mrs. Laura A. Allen of Springfield, Mass.; F. W. Bancroft and Mrs. M. W. Bancroft, Montpelier, Vt.; Geo. W. Bancroft, Croton, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Capron, Attleboro, Mass.; Mrs. George E. Davis, North Andover, Mass.; Miss Minnie J. Dispeau, Pawtucket, R. I.; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Ellis, Master H. D. Ellis, Miss Mattie E. Ellis of Boston; Maurice Goddard, Brookline, Mass.; Colonel N. H. Hubbard of Winterville, Me.; W. E. Lockwood, W. E. E. Lockwood, Jr., B. Lockwood of Norwalk, Conn. Miss Sarah A. Wood, Roxbury, Mass.; Dr. S. F. Mixer, Buffalo, N. Y.; Miss Elizabeth Shaw, Boston; Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Simmons, Brattleboro, Vt.; Miss Sarah E. Skinner, Boston; Mr. and Mrs. F. Smith, Hazardville, Conn.; Dr. A. P. Snow, Winthrop, Me.; Miss K. I. White, Boston Highlands. The party was organized by Raymond & Whitcomb of Boston. Another party of 50 will go east next Thursday morning by the regular train, and the Wednesday following 115 will go east by special train.

THE OSTRICHES.

Their Notions of Domestic Arrangements Might be of Value to Some of the Human Family.

A reporter of the Anaheim (Cal.) Gazette has been interviewing the ostriches on the ranch near Costa station. He says: The female lays an egg on alternate days to the number of 15, when, if permitted to set, she considers her work done. If, however, her eggs are taken from her she will lay 30 before she discovers the deception. And such eggs! The one shown us weighs three and a half pounds, and contains food sufficient to furnish a plentiful breakfast for four men. One would suppose that the flavor of such eggs would be unpleasantly pronounced. Such is not the case, however, the flavor not being as decided as that of ducks eggs. What school boy has not read of the ostrich egg, and of its being hatched in the hot sun of Africa's sunny shore. But this pretty little legend, like many other cherished stories of the past, is all gammon. The chicks are brought forth in the good old way. The female sits on the eggs in the day time and the male assumes that duty at night, allowing the female to seek rest and recreation while he attends to the household duties. It must be noted here that the male is much more solicitous for his household than is the female. It not unfrequently happens that the latter prefers to gad about rather than take her turn at setting, and on such occasions her lord and master administers to her a deserved chastisement by kicking her heartily around the paddock until she manifests proper contrition, and signifies her willingness to settle down on the eggs. There is a moral somewhere about this incident which, when found, make a note of.

A CRUCIAL TEST.

A Baking Powder that Stands at the Head of the List.

The severe chemical tests to which the various baking powders have from time to time been placed have demonstrated clearly to the public the relative merits of the different brands from an analytical point of view. For instance, Dr. Love, the eminent Government chemist, in his analyses made the comparative strength as follows:

Royal (absolutely pure).....127.04
Charm (alum powder).....116.9
Dr. Price's.....102.06
Snow Flake (Gifford's).....101.88
C. E. Andrews & Co's (alum pdr).....78.17

The Royal Baking Powder was found, besides being of absolute purity, to evolve the highest amount of leavening gas of any of the powders tested, and hence it was placed at the head of the list and recommended for Government use.

But the crucial test of the kitchen is, after all, the most satisfactory to the housekeeper. A baking powder that never fails to make light, sweet, wholesome and palatable bread, biscuits, cakes, etc., upon all occasions, is the one that will be placed at the head of the list by the practical housewife, and received into her kitchen for continuous use. This test the Royal Baking Powder has stood for over 20 years without a single failure, and hence its reputation as the best baking powder made has spread from house to house, until its use has become as universal as its merits are unrivaled.

Morgan, Alf Hill's Selwyn and S. A. Hooper's Billy Graham will trot, best two in three, for $75. This will be followed by a mile dash between Knight's Lady Miller, Hooper's Bundle-and-go and Lee's Coyote. The afternoon's sport will close with a mile and repeat race, for which Frank Perkins' Bald Hornet and Lee's Snowflake are entered. There will no doubt be some amusement for horse men.

A GOOD PLACE TO LIVE.

Couldn't See Anything Better Than Reno.

Geo. Ingersoll, who has lived in Reno a long time, returned a day or two ago from a trip through Washington Territory and Oregon. He visited Seattle, Portland, Tacoma and all the places toward which emigrants are now flocking, and personal observation convinced him that all that section of country is being overdone—flooded with impecunious new-comers who have been attracted thither by reports that have been too brightly gilded. He reports that there is much business going on, but there are lots of people to do it, and the present inflation may possibly end in calamitous results.
